Time for a New Restaurant? Here's Where to Eat in Fort Myers

Article by Nina Anderson

Deciding where to go for dinner can be surprisingly tricky, especially when everyone is hungry and opinions are flying. Whether you are in the mood for something upscale or if you just want a casual bite, here's a guide to help you pick the perfect spot in Fort Myers based on what you're craving.

Date Night Vibes - If you're looking to impress someone special or simply enjoy a romantic evening, opt for a cozy Italian trattoria or a modern French bistro. Look for places with dim lighting, soft music, and a well-curated wine list. Bonus points if they have outdoor seating with a great view.

Family Friendly Feasts - When you're going out with the kids or a big group, head for somewhere that's lively, casual, and has something for everyone on the menu. Think pizza parlors, diners, or BBQ spots.

On a Budget - If you're watching your wallet but still want a satisfying meal, street food stalls, food trucks, fast food, and casual local diners are your best bet. You can also explore an ethnic restaurant that offers big flavor for small prices.

Adventurous Eats - Feeling bold? Try something new like Korean food, Peruvian cuisine, or a sushi experience. Look for restaurants that offer regional specialties or unique cooking techniques.

Health-Conscious Choices - For those who want to eat clean or follow a specific diet (vegan, keto, gluten-free), the good news is that healthy dining is now more accessible than ever. Many places now offer fresh, local, and customizable dishes.

Local favorites in Fort Myers often surprise you with hidden gems and unforgettable meals. With over 300 eateries in Fort Myers, no matter your budget, taste, or mood, there is always a great option waiting to be discovered for breakfast, brunch, lunch, dinner, or even a late-night snack!

*The attached list was compiled in July 2025 and is sorted by cuisine, restaurant name, street address, and website address. Before venturing out, don't forget to check the restaurant's website for hours of operation, dress code, and reservations!
