Article & Photos by Nina Anderson

Bell Tower Park residents gathered on Saturday, April 11, 2026, for a delightful afternoon of elegance and entertainment at the Social Committee's annual Tea & Fashion Show. The event combined delicious food, stylish inspiration, lively rounds of bingo, and door prizes, making it a memorable community gathering.

Guests were treated to a beautifully arranged luncheon, with many items thoughtfully prepared by Social Committee members, along with select additions from Publix. The menu featured a variety of tea-time favorites, including 3-cheese and Florentine mini quiches, ham salad croissants, chicken salad croissants, as well as pimento cheese open-face, and cucumber open-face sandwiches.

The desserts were equally impressive, offering a sweet selection of fruit tartlets, chocolate-covered strawberries, cheesecake bites, lemon bars, and bite-sized brownies, perfectly complementing the afternoon's tea theme.

The highlight of the event was the fashion show, where Bell Tower Park residents Pam, Terri, Mary Kay, Suzett, Libby, Sharon, Brenda, and Jackie took to the runway. The models showcased a range of looks, from casual attire and cruise wear to polished, office-appropriate outfits. As each model walked, Michelle from Hollie's Boutique described the clothing and accessories, adding insight and flair to every ensemble. Hollie's Boutique supplied all of the featured styles, highlighting their versatile and fashion-forward collection.

Their philosophy, "Getting dressed should be fun, flattering, and empowering," was reflected throughout the afternoon.

Adding an extra layer of excitement, the event also featured "tea bingo" and an array of door prizes, all generously provided by the Social Committee. Bingo winners took home a variety of fun and practical prizes, including scented soaps, lotions, coffee mugs, assorted teas, food storage containers, and other household items. Door prizes included charming fishbowl candle holders filled with decorative flat vase marbles.
